Business Development commented, “Platinum believes it has found a superior individual in Kasper Bundgaard, who will head up this important market and our office in Miami. Miami is a major center of commerce and boasts a strong international business community. Many large multinational companies are headquartered in or around Miami because of its proximity to Latin America and Miami serves as Headquarters to Latin American operations for more than 1400 corporations including: American Airlines, Cisco, Disney, Exxon, FEDEX, Kraft Foods, Sony, Symantec and many of the major Cruise Lines.”

Diana continued, “The Executive Team at Platinum is very pleased Kasper has joined our group. We are all impressed with his professionalism, background in our industry and the wealth of knowledge he has in both air and ocean forwarding. Kasper joins an impressive team of other Licensee Business Owners and we are sure his specific talents are going to support Platinum Cargo’s continued development of our international markets and business. Interesting to note is that Kasper originally hails from Aarhus, Denmark where he began his career working for Maersk Line & Maersk Logistics.
