PLATINUM CARGO LOGISTICS, INC. HIRES INDUSTRY VETERAN NOAH M. MUNOZ AS WEST COAST OPERATIONS MANAGER

Torrance, CA – Platinum Cargo Logistics, Inc. announced today that it has hired industry veteran Noah M. Munoz.

Noah will assume the role of West Coast Operations Manager and will be based out of the San Diego Regional Office. “Noah comes to us from a diverse background which includes working within the automotive sector,” commented Jefferson Clay, Vice President of International. “He brings a tremendous amount of talent and experience and will be a key part of our management team as we continue to grow our International business as a company.”

Mr. Munoz began his career working as Material Planning & Launch Manager with Ford Motor Companies International Division and transitioned into the role of International Import/Export Compliance Manager for General Motors prior to moving to San Diego, CA in 2007. During his most recent employment in San Diego, he worked as the International Operations Manager for a local forwarder - overseeing both air and ocean divisions. He was also in charge of trade and industry compliance for both company staff and customers.

In his new role, Noah will be tasked with supporting West Coast offices including the newly opened San Diego Regional Logistics Center as well as ensuring company-wide compliance. He will also spend time nurturing existing and establishing new vendor relationships.

“We’re excited to have Noah on board,” commented President Kelli Spiri. “His presence will allow us to better support both our licensees and their customers. We expect our international product to continue to grow and Noah will be an integral part of that success.”
